

Senator Kim Reynolds

Senator Kim Reynolds was elected in November 2008 as State Senator for District 48. Kim represents seven counties in Southwest Iowa. Her legislative priorities include economic growth, rural Iowa infrastructure, streamlining government and technology. Kim also is managing Business Development for ABC Virtual Communications, a technology company in West Des Moines.

Prior to running for the Senate, Senator Reynolds served 14 years as the Clarke County Treasurer. Kim served as President of the Iowa County Treasurers Association, Legislative Lobbyist, and was instrumental in the implementation of the Iowa State County Treasurers Website, providing e-commerce services to all 99 counties at no or minimal cost. She also served as First Vice-President of the National Association of County Treasurers, Collectors, and Finance Officers.

Kim and her husband Kevin live in Osceola, have 3 daughters Nicole, Jennifer, and Jessica, all graduates of Iowa State University, two son-in-laws Ryan and Jason and are proud grandparents of two grandchildren Avrie and Gavin.
